56. (1) Subject to section 63, a person shall not trade in a security on that person's own account or on behalf of any other person where the trade would be a distribution of the security requiring registration under to section 55 (1), unless a prospectus has been filed with the Commission with the prescribed fee and a receipt evidencing payment of the fee has been issued by the Commission.

(2) A prospectus is valid for the period of time for distribution as determined under section 67.

Advertising.

57. (1) A person shall not solicit a trade in a security by way of advertisement or any other means in connection with a distribution of a security, unless a receipt has been issued by the Commission under this Act for a prospectus offering the security, and the advertisement —

(a) identifies the security proposed to be distributed and contains all other prescribed information;

(b) states that a receipt has been issued by the Commission; and

(c) identifies a person from whom a document containing the information specified in paragraph (a) may be obtained, and a person through whom an order is to be executed.

(2) A person may solicit an expression of interest from an accredited investor with respect to a proposed distribution if the person notifies —

(a) the Commission in writing that he intends to do so and identifies the security proposed to be distributed; and

(b) the accredited investor that —

(i) either the securities are being distributed pursuant to a limited offering or a prospectus related to the proposed distribution has been filed with the Commission but the receipt has not been issued,

(ii) no offer to buy the securities can be accepted and no part of the purchase price can be recovered until the prospectus for the proposed distribution has been approved by the Commission, and

(iii) such expression of interest is not binding on either party.

58. (1) An issuer or a licensee acting as agent for the issuer, who receives an order or subscription for a security offered in a distribution, shall send or deliver to a person, a prospectus, or amended prospectus, as the case may be, within two business days after the order or subscription is received.

Delivery of prospectus.

(2) An agreement of purchase and sale in relation to an order or subscription referred to under subsection (1) is not binding on a purchaser if the issuer, or the licensee acting as agent for the issuer, receives not later than two business days after the day the purchaser received a prospectus or amended prospectus under subsection (1), written notice that the purchaser intends not to be bound by the agreement.

(3) A person filing a prospectus with the Commission under section 56, must shall furnish to a licensee a reasonable number of copies of the prospectus on request and without charge.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the date of receipt of a prospectus by a person who acts solely as agent of the purchaser with respect to the purchase of a security referred to under subsection (1), is considered to be the date of receipt by the principal purchaser.

Contents of prospectus.

59. A prospectus must disclose all material information concerning the issuer and the securities to be distributed and comply with the prescribed requirements.

Amendments.

60. (1) If there is a material change during the distribution period of a prospectus, the issuer shall file with the Commission an addendum containing the material change or material fact as the case may be, together with the prescribed fee as soon as practicable and in any event within ten days and each prospectus sent after ten business days or delivered to any person shall include a copy of the addendum.

(2) Where an addendum is required to be prepared and filed with the Commission under subsection (1), the Commission may require the cessation of the distribution of securities under the prospectus until such time as the Commission has issued a receipt for the addendum.

(3) An issuer or licensee who sent a prospectus to a person under section 58 shall send to each such person an amended prospectus immediately after it has been filed.

61. A prospectus or amended prospectus filed with the Commission must contain certificates in the prescribed form signed by the prescribed persons. Certificates.

62. (1) A receipt shall not be issued by the Commission for a prospectus that includes a report, opinion, valuation or statement purporting to be made by an expert unless — Expert's Consent.

(a) that expert has given, and has not before delivery of a copy of the prospectus withdrawn, his consent to the inclusion of the statement in the form and context in which it is included in the prospectus; and

(b) there appears in the prospectus a statement that the expert has given and has not withdrawn his or her consent.

(2) The written consent of an expert under subsection (1) must be filed in the prescribed manner.

63. (1) The requirement to file a prospectus under section 56 does not apply to a distribution of securities — Exemption.

(b) issued or guaranteed by a Participating Government;

(c) by an issuer where the purchaser is an affiliate of the issuer acting as principal;

(d) by an issuer of a security that is distributed to holders of its securities as a dividend or a distribution out of earnings, surplus, capital or other sources;

- (e) by an issuer of a security to holders of its securities incidental to a reorganization or winding up or to a distribution of its assets for the purpose of winding up its affairs;
- (f) by an issuer of a security pursuant to the exercise of a right to acquire a security of its own issue, which right was previously granted by the issuer, if no commission or other remuneration is paid or given in respect of the distribution except for administrative or professional services or for services other than the solicitation of investors performed by a licensee;
- (g) by an issuer of a right, transferable or otherwise, granted by it to holders of its securities to purchase additional securities of its own issue, and of securities pursuant to the exercise of such a right if the issuer —
 - (i) files with the Commission a notice in the prescribed form that is to be sent to its security holders and the Commission does not inform the issuer in writing within ten business days of the filing that it objects to the distribution, and
 - (ii) sends to its security holders information relating to the securities that is satisfactory to the Commission;
- (h) by an issuer of a security that is exchanged by or for the account of the issuer with another issuer or the security holders of another issuer on —

- (i) a statutory amalgamation or arrangement, or
 - (ii) a statutory procedure by which one issuer takes title to the assets of another issuer that loses its existence by operation of law or by which the existing issuers merge into a new issuer;
- (i) by an issuer of securities of its own issue or that of an affiliate to its senior officers or employees, or senior officers or employees of an affiliate, if —
 - (i) in the case of employees, the employees are not induced to purchase the securities by expectation of employment or continued employment with the issuer, and
 - (ii) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given in respect of the distribution except for professional services or for services, other than the solicitation of employees, performed by a licensee;
- (j) where the Commission makes an order that the cost of providing a prospectus outweighs the resulting protection to investors, the Commission may make the order subject to any conditions it considers appropriate;
- (k) by a reporting issuer to accredited investors where —
 - (i) the distribution is not accompanied by an advertisement other than an announcement, on prescribed terms, of its completion,
 - (ii) no selling or promotional expenses are paid in connection with the trade except for professional services or services performed by an intermediary, and

(iii) the accredited investor is a person other than as described in paragraph (b) or (d) of the definition of accredited investor under section 2(1), and the person has obtained investment advice in respect of the distribution from —

(A) a licensee; or

(B) any prescribed person who receives no remuneration from the issuer or selling security holder in connection with the distribution;

(l) that is a limited offering;

(m) where the Commission, being satisfied that to do so would not be prejudicial to the public interest, makes an order exempting the distribution, and such order may be subject to any condition the Commission considers appropriate; or

(n) in any other prescribed circumstance.

(2) An asset-backed security may only be distributed under an exemption in subsection (1) if a risk disclosure statement in the prescribed form was delivered to each purchaser of the asset-backed security.

(3) The securities certificate or other proof of ownership of a security acquired under an exemption in subsection (1) shall contain a statement regarding any resale restrictions where prescribed.

64. (1) An issuer that is an approved foreign issuer may satisfy the requirements of sections 54, 55, 56, 58, 59, 60 and 62 by —

 - (iii) a copy of all documents incorporated or considered incorporated by reference in the prospectus or offering document,
 - (iv) a copy of all reports or valuations, or other documents filed in the recognized foreign jurisdiction in connection with the distribution,
 - (v) a form of submission to the Commission's jurisdiction and appointment of an agent for service of process of the issuer in such form as the Commission may determine, and
 - (vi) a copy of the prospectus or offering document, and each supplement or amendment thereto, including a certificate of a senior officer of the issuer certifying that the prospectus or offering document constitutes full and true disclosure in plain English language of all the material facts relating to the issuer and the securities being distributed;

(b) delivering to each purchaser within the Currency Union —

(i) the offering document or prospectus, and each supplement or amendment to the offering document or prospectus, and

(ii) an addendum to the offering document or prospectus containing the prescribed information.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an approved foreign issuer where —

(a) following the distribution, the number of voting securities of the issuer held, beneficially and of record, directly or indirectly, by the residents of the Currency Union would amount to twenty per cent or more in the aggregate of the total number of securities outstanding of the issuer;

(b) the approved foreign issuer is an investment fund; or

(c) the documents required to be filed by the issuer under subsection (1) are not in English.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), where an approved foreign issuer files with the Commission the documents required under subsection (1), the Commission shall issue a receipt for such prospectus or offering document unless the Commission determines it is not in the public interest to do so.

Resale restrictions.

65. (1) The first trade in securities previously acquired under a prescribed exemption contained in paragraph (c), (f), (k), or (l) of section 63(1), other than a further trade exempted by this Act, is considered to be a distribution, unless —

- (a) the issuer whose securities are being traded is and has been a reporting issuer for the twelve months immediately preceding the date of the trade;
- (b) no unusual effort is made to prepare the market or to create a demand for the securities that are the subject of the trade;
- (c) no extraordinary commission or consideration is paid to a person in respect of the trade;
- (d) if the seller is a person connected to a reporting issuer within the meaning of Part VIII, the seller has no reasonable grounds to believe that the reporting issuer is in default under this Act; or
- (e) at least six months have elapsed from the date of the initial distribution with the exception of securities previously acquired under an exemption contained under section 63(1)(f).

(2) A person who purchases a security under an exemption from the prospectus requirement that is available under this Act at the time when the condition set forth in subsection (1)(e) has not been satisfied, shall be in the same position as the seller for the remainder of the period specified in subsection (1)(e).

(3) Where a security of an issuer is distributed on conversion or exchange of another security of the same issuer at a time when the condition set forth in subsection (1)(e) has not been satisfied in respect of the convertible or exchangeable security, a person who takes such security distributed on conversion or exchange shall be in the same position for the remainder of the period specified in subsection (1)(e) as if such conversion or exchange had not occurred.

Receipt for prospectus.

66. (1) Subject to subsections, (2), (3) and (4), the Commission shall issue a receipt for a prospectus within thirty business days after the date of the filing of the prospectus.

(2) The Commission shall refuse to issue a receipt for a prospectus if —

- (a) the prospectus or any document filed with the prospectus —
 - (i) contains a misrepresentation,
 - (ii) contains any statement, promise, estimate or forecast that is misleading, false or deceptive,
 - (iii) fails to disclose any information which may be required under this Act or the Regulations, or
 - (iv) fails to comply with any requirement of this Act or the Regulations;
- (b) the distribution in connection with which it is filed is deceptive;
- (c) an extraordinary commission or consideration has been or is intended to be given for promotional purposes or for the acquisition of the security;
- (d) in the opinion of the Commission, the past conduct of —
 - (i) the issuer,
 - (ii) a senior officer of the issuer,
 - (iii) the promoter of the distribution,
 - (iv) a person holding securities sufficient to materially affect the control of the issuer, or

- (v) any other person who exercises, or is reasonably considered by the Commission as likely to exercise, influence over the issuer's management or policies, suggests that the business or affairs of the issuer are likely to be conducted in a manner that is not honest, or financially responsible, or that may be unfair to holders of its securities;
- (e) the proceeds that the issuer will receive from the distribution, together with its other resources, are not sufficient to accomplish the purpose of the distribution stated in the prospectus;
- (f) a recognized expert who has prepared or certified a part of the prospectus or report used in connection with the prospectus, or who has filed a consent with the Commission is not accepted by the Commission;
- (g) the issuer is in default in filing or delivering any document to the Commission required under this Act or under any other enactment by or under which it is incorporated or organized;
- (h) a broker-dealer or investment adviser named in the prospectus is not licensed as such under this Act or authorized to perform equivalent functions under the laws of a recognized foreign jurisdiction;
- (i) where a minimum amount of funds is required by an issuer, the prospectus does not indicate that the distribution will cease if the minimum amount of funds is not subscribed within ninety business days of the commencement of the distribution; or

(j) the Commission considers that the distribution would be prejudicial to the public interest.

(3) Where the Commission refuses to issue a receipt for a prospectus, the Commission must provide the issuer with a notice in writing of the reasons for the refusal and the issuer may apply for a review under section 143.

(4) The Commission may, in connection with the issue of a receipt for a prospectus, impose any condition that, in the opinion of the Commission is necessary for the protection of investors including a condition that—

(a) outstanding securities of the issuer must be held in escrow on such terms as the Commission may specify;

(b) the proceeds of a distribution which are payable to the issuer be held in trust until such amounts, as may be specified by the Commission, are to be released to the issuer; or

(c) no sales under the distribution may be completed before a time specified by the Commission.

Commencement and cessation of distribution.

67. (1) For the purposes of this Part, a distribution commences on the date that the receipt for the prospectus is issued.

(2) Where the prospectus states that a minimum amount of funds is required to be raised by an issuer, and such minimum amount of funds is not raised by the issuer in the first ninety business days following the commencement of the distribution, the distribution shall cease and the funds shall be returned to subscribers until such time as a new prospectus is filed and a receipt thereof issued by the Commission.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a distribution shall not continue longer than one year from the commencement date in subsection (1).

(4) The Commission may determine that the period specified in subsection (3) be reduced to not less than six months.

68. A person who distributes a security, other than a security which is issued by an investment fund —

Post distribution
Statement.

(a) under a prospectus which has been filed with the Commission and receipt obtained under this Act; or

(b) under an exemption from the requirement to file a prospectus with the Commission; shall within ten business days of the completion of the distribution, file a post distribution statement in respect of the securities distributed with the Commission in such form as the Commission may determine.

69. (1) If a distribution is carried out other than in compliance with this Part, the issuer and each person who is knowingly a party to the distribution is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Offence.

(2) In the case of a continuing offence, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars for each day, or part of a day, from the date of the first solicitation in connection with the distribution until a receipt has been issued for a prospectus, by the Commission.

PART V

CONTINUING OBLIGATIONS OF REPORTING ISSUERS

70. (1) A reporting issuer must disclose to the public all material facts and any other prescribed information about the Disclosure to the public.

(2) The information disclosed to the public by a reporting issuer under subsection (1) must —

- (a) include all information required to be disclosed under this Part;
- (b) not contain any misrepresentation; and
- (c) present a balanced view of an issuer's activities.

(3) The Commission may prescribe the method to be used by the reporting issuer to disclose information to the public

Fair treatment of security holders.

71. A reporting issuer shall treat a security holder in a fair and equitable manner.

Duties of directors and officers.

72. A director and officer of a reporting issuer, in exercising their powers and discharging his or her duties shall —

- (a) act honestly and in good faith for the best interest of the issuer; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Timely disclosure of material changes.

73. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a material change occurs in the affairs of a reporting issuer, the reporting issuer shall immediately —

- (a) publish a notice of the substance of the change, authorized by a senior officer of the reporting issuer, in each member territory in a newspaper of general circulation or as otherwise prescribed; and
- (b) within seven business days of the material change, file a report with the Commission in the prescribed form along with a copy of the published notice, disclosing the nature and substance of the material change, the contents of which shall be certified by a senior officer of the reporting issuer.

(2) If the reporting issuer is of the opinion that the immediate disclosure required by subsection (1) is unduly detrimental to its interests, it shall immediately give the Commission notice in writing of the information relating to the reporting issuer, including information on any significant new developments in the issuer's business or affairs which is not public knowledge and the reasons that the issuer is of the opinion that public disclosure must be withheld.

(3) Where the Commission is in receipt of a notice under subsection (2), the Commission may, after giving the reporting issuer an opportunity to be heard —

- (a) require the disclosure of the material change to the public in accordance with subsection (1), if the Commission is of the opinion that the disclosure would not be unduly detrimental to the interests of the reporting issuer; or
- (b) permit non-disclosure of the material change by the reporting issuer provided non-disclosure does not continue beyond the time set out in subsection (5).

(4) A decision of the Commission under subsection (3) is final and no appeal from such a decision shall be available.

(5) Notwithstanding any permitted non-disclosure under subsection (3)(b), the reporting issuer shall disclose to the public such material change no later than thirty business days or in any event on a date to be determined by the Commission.

(6) The reporting issuer shall, notwithstanding a notice has been given to the Commission under subsection (2), promptly disclose the material change in the manner referred to in subsection (1) on the reporting issuer becoming aware or having reasonable grounds to believe that persons are purchasing or selling securities of the issuer with knowledge of the undisclosed material change.

(7) The Commission or a securities exchange licensed under this Act may make a cease trading order in the trading of securities of a reporting issuer for a period of time, to allow for the disclosure of a material change if the Commission is of the opinion that such cease trade order is appropriate to ensure orderly trading in the securities.

Auditors and audits.

74. A reporting issuer shall appoint an approved auditor who shall conduct an audit of the annual financial statements of the issuer in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and shall provide the Commission with a prescribed report on the financial affairs of the issuer.

Filing an annual audited financial statement.

75. (1) A reporting issuer shall, within one hundred and twenty business days after the end of the issuer's financial year or such other prescribed period, file with the Commission annual audited financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(2) A financial statement under subsection (1) must be accompanied by a report of the auditor required under section 74.

(3) The Commission may, where the report of the auditor required by subsection (2) is qualified in any respect, take any action that it deems necessary until the matters giving rise to the qualified audit report are resolved.

(4) Where in the course of performing the duty required by subsection (2), the auditor determines that a matter that could give rise to a qualification in the audit report on the financial statements is present, the auditor shall —

- (a) immediately provide notice to the Commission in the prescribed form; and
- (b) immediately deliver a copy of the notice under paragraph (a) to the reporting issuer.

76. A reporting issuer shall file with the Commission interim financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles within thirty business days or such other prescribed period after the end of the financial period to which it relates.

Interim financial statement.

77. A reporting issuer shall, within one hundred and twenty business days after the end of its financial year, file with the Commission —

Annual reports.

- (a) a copy of its annual report containing such information as the Commission may specify; and
- (b) any other prescribed report, document or information the Commission specifies.

78. (1) As soon as practicable after filing with the Commission, a reporting issuer shall send to each security holder, at the address provided to the reporting issuer as the preferred delivery address of the security holder or at the last address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the reporting issuer or by electronic mail or other electronic means and at no cost to the security holder, the following documents —

Delivery of continuous disclosure documents to security holders.

- (a) the annual financial statements and the report of the auditor;

(b) the annual report; and

(c) any other prescribed report or document.

(2) The obligation to send documents to a security holder under subsection (1) does not apply —

(a) in relation to documents published under section 73; or

(b) if a security holder has informed the reporting issuer that the security holder does not wish to receive the documents.

Failure to file.

79. Where a reporting issuer fails to file a report or statement required to be filed under this Part, the reporting issuer is liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars for each day from the day of the default except when an extension to the period has been granted by the Commission under section 169.

Proxies and proxy solicitation.

80. (1) A reporting issuer shall, concurrently with the giving of notice of a meeting of its security holders, send a prescribed form of proxy and any other prescribed document to each holder of voting securities who is entitled to receive notice of the meeting at the preferred address or at the last address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the reporting issuer or by electronic mail or other electronic means and at no cost to the security holder.

(2) A person shall not solicit a proxy under subsection (1) unless each security holder whose proxy is solicited is sent all prescribed documents at the time of the solicitation.

(3) A person soliciting a proxy shall, at the time of sending the proxy document required in subsection (2), file with the Commission a copy of each document sent to security holders.

(4) The Commission may —

- (a) require a reporting issuer to file with the Commission, within such time limit as may be prescribed, draft copies of any documents that the issuer intends to send to security holders under this section prior to any sending; and
- (b) review any proxy documents or any other communications to security holders and require modifications to the documents or delay any mailing or security holder meeting as a result of its review.

(5) In this section “solicit” —

(a) includes —

- (i) a request for a proxy, whether or not accompanied by or included in a form of proxy;
- (ii) a request to execute or not to execute a form of proxy or to revoke a proxy;
- (iii) the sending of a form of proxy or other communications to a security holder under circumstances reasonably calculated to result in the procurement, withholding or revocation of a proxy; and
- (iv) the sending of a form of proxy to a security holder under subsection (2), but

(b) does not include —

- (i) the sending of a form of proxy in response to an unsolicited request made by or on behalf of a security holder,

- (ii) the performance of administrative acts or professional services on behalf of a person soliciting a proxy,
- (iii) the sending by a registrant of documents to a beneficial owner,
- (iv) the solicitation by a person in respect of securities of which the person is the beneficial owner, or
- (v) other prescribed activities.

Exemption for certain foreign issuers.

81. (1) A reporting issuer that is an approved foreign issuer is exempt from the requirements of this Part, if the reporting issuer —

- (a) complies in all respects with the foreign disclosure requirements of its recognized foreign jurisdiction regarding —
 - (i) the disclosure of material changes on a timely basis,
 - (ii) the preparation, filing and delivery of annual audited financial statements, and
 - (iii) the preparation, filing and delivery of interim financial statements;
- (b) files with the Commission all such documents that it files with the foreign regulatory authority in the recognized foreign jurisdiction in respect of the items described under paragraph (a); and

(c) delivers to each security holder resident in the Currency Union, at the security holder's preferred delivery address or at the last address of the security holder shown on the securities register of the approved foreign issuer or by electronic mail or other electronic means and at no cost to the security holder, the documents that such security holder would be entitled to receive under the laws governing securities in the recognized foreign jurisdiction if such security holder were resident in that foreign jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) is not applicable to an approved foreign issuer if, as at the end of the last financial year of the approved foreign issuer, the number of securities of the approved foreign issuer held beneficially and of record, directly or indirectly, by residents in the Currency Union is twenty per cent or more of the outstanding voting securities of the issuer on such date or such other ownership threshold as may be prescribed.

(3) A reporting issuer that is an approved foreign issuer shall certify annually to the Commission in writing, concurrently with the filing of its annual financial statements, that it is an approved foreign issuer and is permitted to rely on the exemption provided by this section.

82. The Commission may on its own motion or on an application by a reporting issuer, make an order declaring, subject to such conditions as prescribed, that the issuer is no longer a reporting issuer.

Ceasing to be a reporting issuer.

83. (1) A reporting issuer who—

Offences.

(a) contravenes this Part; or

(b) makes a misrepresentation in any document required to be filed with the Commission or delivered to security holders under this Part, commits an offence and is liable on conviction—

(i) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both,

(ii) in the case of a company, to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars.

(2) A senior officer of a reporting issuer who knowingly or recklessly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of an offence under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the defence available to a senior officer under section 147 is also available to a senior officer in respect of this section.

(4) Where a senior officer is convicted of an offence under subsection (2), the Commission may order, that the individual be prohibited from being a senior officer of a reporting issuer or licensee for a period not exceeding five years, if it is in the public interest, and may do so in addition to any other order that the Commission may make.

(5) An auditor of a reporting issuer that knowingly makes or provides a false or misleading audit report in respect of the financial statements of a reporting issuer commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

(6) Where an auditor is convicted of an offence under subsection (5), the Commission may order that the auditor be prohibited from being an approved auditor for a period not exceeding five years if it is in the public interest and may do so in addition to any other order that the Commission may make.

PART VI

GOVERNANCE OF REPORTING ISSUERS

84. A reporting issuer shall comply with all prescribed requirements regarding the governance of reporting issuers, including—

Compliance with prescribed requirements.

- (a) the composition of its board of directors and qualifications for membership on the board, with respect to independent members;
- (b) the establishment of specified types of committees of the board of directors, the mandate, functioning and responsibilities of each committee, the composition of each committee and the qualifications for membership on the committee with respect to independent members;
- (c) the establishment and enforcement of a code of business conduct and ethics applicable to its directors, officers and employees and applicable to persons or companies that are in a special relationship with the reporting issuer, including the minimum requirements for such a code; and
- (d) procedures to regulate conflicts of interest between the interests of the reporting issuer and those of a director or officer of the reporting issuer.

PART VIITAKEOVER BIDS

(2) In the case of a continuing offence under subsection (1), a person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars for each day the offence continues.

PART VIIIDISCLOSURE OF SHAREHOLDINGS OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND SIGNIFICANT SECURITY HOLDERSReports by certain connected persons.

87. (1) A person who is connected to a reporting issuer shall, within five business days of the day that he becomes connected to the reporting issuer, file a report with the Commission in the prescribed form disclosing any beneficial ownership of or control over, securities of the reporting issuer.

(2) A person —

(a) who is connected to a reporting issuer; and

(b) who changes his beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of the reporting issuer

shall within five business days from the day on which the change takes place, file in such form as the Commission may determine, a report of any change in beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of the reporting issuer by him as of the day on which the change took place.

(3) A person to whom this section applies shall not transfer or cause to be transferred any securities of the reporting issuer to which he or she is connected into the name of an agent, nominee or custodian, other than a clearing facility, without filing with the Commission a report of the transfer in such form as the Commission may determine, except for a transfer for the purpose of giving collateral for a verifiable debt.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person is not required to file a report under this section where the person does not beneficially own, or exercise control or direction over, any securities of the reporting issuer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person's beneficial ownership of, or control or direction over, securities of a reporting issuer, includes —

(a) securities that are convertible or exchangeable for securities of a reporting issuer, whether or not on condition; or

(b) rights to acquire or to subscribe for, or otherwise receive securities of a reporting issuer, whether or not such securities are securities issued by the reporting issuer.

(6) A person who files a report with the Commission under this section shall deliver a copy of the report that he has filed with the Commission under this section to the reporting issuer.

Register of interest of directors and significant shareholders.

88. (1) A reporting issuer shall keep, a register of senior officers' and significant security holders' interests in a form and manner prescribed by the Commission.

(2) The register shall be held at the reporting issuer's registered office and shall, during usual office hours, be open for inspection by members of the public free of charge.

(3) The register shall be produced at the commencement of the reporting issuer's annual general meeting and be kept open and available throughout the meeting to any person attending.

Notification to securities exchange and Commission.

89. (1) Where a reporting issuer is notified by a senior officer or significant security holder of any matter relating to securities which the reporting issuer is required to enter in its register, the reporting issuer shall inform the securities exchange on which the securities of the reporting issuer are listed, and the Commission, before the end of the day following the day of the notification or entry, as the case may be.

PART IXUNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES

91. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act, the ownership of securities issued by a reporting issuer may, subject to the prescribed provisions, be evidenced and transferred without a written instrument.

Transfer of uncertificated securities.
Chap. 78:04.

PART X MARKET MISCONDUCT

92. A person shall not take part in or carry out, whether directly or indirectly and whether within the Currency Union or elsewhere, a transaction or series of transactions that has or is likely to have the effect of —

Manipulation of the market.

- (a) creating an artificial price for trading in securities on a market place licensed under this Act; or
- (b) maintaining a price for trading in securities on a market place licensed under this Act at a level that is artificial, whether or not it was previously artificial.

93. (1) A person shall not do, or omit to do, an act, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, if that act or omission has or is likely to have the effect of creating, or causing the creation of, a false or misleading appearance —

False trading and market rigging - creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading etc.

- (a) of active trading in securities on a market place licensed under this Act; or
- (b) with respect to the market place for, or the price for trading in securities on a market place licensed under this Act.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), a person is deemed to have created a false or misleading appearance of active trading in particular securities on a licensed market place if the person —

- (a) enters into, or carries out, either directly or indirectly, any transaction of purchase or sale of any of those securities that does not involve any change in the beneficial ownership of the securities;
- (b) makes an offer to sell any of those securities at a specified price and has made or proposes to make, or knows, that an associate of the person has made or proposes to make, an offer to purchase the same number, or substantially the same number, of those securities at a price that is substantially the same as the price specified in the offer to sell; or
- (c) makes an offer to purchase any of those securities at a specified price and has made or proposes to make, an offer to sell the same number, or substantially the same number, of those securities at a price that is substantially the same as the price specified in the offer to purchase.

(3) The circumstances in which a person creates a false or misleading appearance of active trading in particular securities on a market place are not limited to the circumstances set out in subsection (2).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a), a purchase or sale of securities does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership if —

- (a) a person who had an interest in the securities before the purchase or sale; or
- (b) an associate of a person under paragraph (a) has an interest in the securities after the purchase or sale.

(5) The reference in subsection (2)(a) to a transaction of purchase or sale of securities includes —

- (a) a reference to the making of an offer to purchase or sell securities; and
- (b) a reference to the making of an invitation, however expressed, that expressly or impliedly invites a person to offer to buy or sell securities.

94. (1) A person shall not, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, enter into, or engage in, a fictitious or artificial transaction or device if that transaction or device results in —

False trading and market rigging - artificially maintaining etc. trading price.

- (a) the price for trading in securities on a licensed market place being maintained, inflated or depressed; or
- (b) fluctuations in the price for trading in securities on a licensed market place.

(2) In determining whether a transaction is fictitious or artificial for the purposes of subsection (1), the fact that the transaction is, or was at any time, intended by the parties who entered into it to have effect according to its terms is not conclusive.

95. (1) A person shall not engage in conduct, in or from within the Currency Union, in relation to securities business or a security, that is misleading or deceptive or is likely to mislead or deceive.

Misleading or deceptive conduct.

(2) The reference in subsection (1) to engaging in conduct in relation to a security includes —

- (a) trading in a security;

- (b) issuing a security;
- (c) publishing a notice or advertisement in relation to a security;
- (d) making, or making an evaluation of, an offer under a take-over bid or a recommendation relating to such an offer; or
- (e) carrying on negotiations, or making arrangements, or doing any other act, preparatory to, or in any way related to, an activity covered by any of paragraphs (b) to (d).

Misleading the Commission.

96. A person shall not provide the Commission or the public with information that —

- (a) is false;
- (b) is misleading in a material particular; or
- (c) fails to state a fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make the statement not misleading.

Dissemination of information about illegal transactions

97. A person shall not, whether in or from within the Currency Union or elsewhere, circulate or disseminate, or be involved in the circulation or dissemination of any statement or information to the effect that the price for the trading in securities on a licensed market place will, or is likely to rise or fall or be maintained, because of a transaction, or other act or thing done, in relation to those securities, if —

- (a) the transaction or thing done, a transaction or thing done constitutes or would constitute a contravention of sections 92, 93, 94 or 95; and
- (b) the person or an associate of that person;

- (i) has entered into such a transaction or done such an act or thing, or
- (ii) has received, or may receive, directly or indirectly, a consideration or benefit for circulating or disseminating or authorizing the circulation or dissemination of, the statement or information.

98. A person shall not, whether in the Currency Union or elsewhere, make a statement, or disseminate information, if —

False or misleading statements.

- (a) the statement or information is false in a material particular or is materially misleading;
- (b) the statement or information is likely —
 - (i) to induce persons in the Currency Union to trade securities, or
 - (ii) to have the effect of increasing, reducing, maintaining or stabilizing the price for trading in securities on a licensed market place; and
- (c) when the person makes the statement, or disseminates the information —
 - (i) the person does not care whether the statement or information is true or false, or
 - (ii) the person knows, or ought reasonably to have known, that the statement or information is false in a material particular or is misleading.

99. A person shall not, in or from within the Currency Union, induce another person to trade in securities by —

Inducing persons to deal.

- (a) making or publishing a statement, promise or forecast if the person knows, or is reckless as to whether, the statement is misleading, false or deceptive;

(b) a dishonest concealment of material information; or

(c) recording or storing information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or materially misleading if —

(i) the information is recorded or stored in, or by means of, a mechanical, electronic or other device, and

(ii) when the information was so recorded or stored, the person had reasonable grounds to expect that it would be available to others.

Dishonest conduct.

100. A person shall not, in the course of carrying on securities business in or from within the Currency Union, engage in dishonest conduct in relation to securities business or a security.

Prohibited representations.

101. (1) Except as prescribed, a person shall not make, for the purpose of inducing another person to trade in a security, other than a security that carries an obligation of the issuer to redeem or purchase, or a right of the owner to require redemption or purchase, a representation, written or oral, that a person will —

(a) resell or repurchase such security; or

(b) refund all or any of the purchase price of such security.

(2) A person shall not make, for the purpose of inducing another person to trade in a security, a representation, written or oral, relating to the future value or price of such security.

(3) Except as prescribed, a person shall not make, for the purpose of inducing another person to trade in a security, a representation, written or oral, that such security will be listed on a licensed market place.

102. (1) A person that is in a special relationship with the reporting issuer and has inside information about the reporting issuer, shall not —

Prohibition on purchasing or selling of securities by certain persons.

PART XIIINVESTIGATION, INSPECTION AND ENFORCEMENTDivision 1Investigation and inspection*

111. (1) The Commission may conduct an investigation it considers necessary or expedient, for any of the following —

Power to investigate.

- (a) to determine whether any person has contravened, is contravening, or is about to contravene securities law;
- (b) to determine whether a person may have committed a breach of trust, fraud or misconduct, in carrying out securities business;
- (c) to determine whether the manner in which a person has engaged, or is engaging, in any securities business is not in the public interest;
- (d) for the administration of securities law;
- (e) to assist in the administration of the securities law of another jurisdiction; or

(f) any other matter that the Commission considers necessary.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission may conduct the investigation or may, in writing, appoint another person for that purpose.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any prescribed written law or any requirement imposed in this Act or any other law, the Commission may exercise any of its powers under this Division for the purposes of conducting an investigation under subsection (1).

Power to obtain information.

112. (1) Where the Commission considers that a person is or may be able to give information or produce a document which is or may be relevant to an investigation, it may —

(a) require the person to attend before it at a specified time and place to answer questions, including under oath or affirmation;

(b) enter, during reasonable hours, the business premises of the person for the purposes of —

(i) inspecting and copying information or documents stored in any form on such premises, or

(ii) seizing and taking possession of any information or documents; and

(c) require the person to give, or procure the giving of, specified information or information of a specified description in such form as the Commission may reasonably require.

(2) Where the Commission does not regulate the person identified at subsection (1), the Commission shall, at any time if the circumstances so require, apply to a judge of the High Court for an order authorizing the Commission or a person appointed under section 111(2) to enter the premises of the person at any time to conduct an examination.

(3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the material the Commission may order be furnished under subsection (1) includes —

- (c) subscribers records held or maintained by internet service providers or other electronic communication providers located in the Currency Union that includes the identity of subscribers name and address, payment details, length of service, type of service utilized, network address, session times, dates and durations, and such other details as prescribed.

113. (1) The Commission may conduct an on-site or off-site inspection of the business of a regulated person for the purpose of —

Compliance inspection of licensees.

(a) determining whether the person is complying with —

(i) securities law, or

(ii) any other prescribed statute that is administered by the Commission; or

(b) assisting in the administration of the securities law of another jurisdiction.

(2) The Commission may, in writing, appoint another person to conduct the inspection under subsection (1).

(3) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require a person under inspection to produce information or documents, or a class of information or documents that reasonably relates to the inspection.

(4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person shall, within the period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or documents described in the notice that are in the custody, possession or control of the person.

(5) The Commission may enter, during reasonable hours, the business premises of a person under inspection for the purposes of —

(a) inspecting and copying information or documents stored in any form on such premises; or

(b) seizing and taking possession of any information or documents.

(6) The Commission may require a person under inspection to give an explanation for, or further particulars regarding, any information or document produced under subsection (4) or obtained under subsection (5).

(7) If a person acting on behalf of the Commission, enters premises under subsection (5), the person shall present proof of his or her authority to do so.

(8) Any information or document seized under subsection (5) shall be returned to the person from whom, or premises from which, it was taken as soon as possible.

114. (1) The Commission may by notice require a regulated person to provide the Commission with a report, in such form as may be specified in the notice, by the person's approved auditor, or by an accountant or other person with relevant professional skill, on, or on any aspect of, any matter about which the Commission has required or could require the regulated person to provide information under securities law.

Power to require reports.

(2) The report shall be prepared at the expense of the regulated person.

(3) A person shall not be appointed to make a report required under this section unless the Commission gives prior approval to the appointment of the person.

(4) The person appointed to make the report under this section shall immediately give written notice to the Commission of each fact or matter of which that person becomes aware which indicates that —

(a) any of the minimum criteria is not or has not been fulfilled, or may not be or may not have been fulfilled, in respect of the regulated person; and

(b) the matters are likely to be of material significance for the exercise, in relation to such person, of the Commission's functions under this Act.

Compliance inspection of other market participants.

115.(1) The Commission may inspect the business of a market participant, other than a regulated person, for the purposes of —

(a) determining if the person is complying with;

(i) securities law,

(ii) or any other prescribed statute that is administered by the Commission; or

(b) assisting in the administration of the securities law of another jurisdiction.

(2) The Commission may in writing appoint another person to conduct the inspection under subsection (1).

(3) The Commission may, by notice in writing, require a person under inspection to produce information or documents, or a class of information or documents that reasonably relates to the inspection.

(4) After receiving a notice under subsection (3), a person shall, within the period as specified in the notice, provide to the Commission the information or document that is described in the notice and that is in the custody, possession or control of the person.

Provision of information relating to transactions.

116. (1) The Commission may, for the purpose of assisting in the performance of any of its functions or the exercise of any of its powers under this Act, require —

(a) a person registered as the holder of securities recorded in a register, kept by or on behalf of an issuer;

(b) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe holds any securities;

(c) a person that the Commission has reasonable cause to believe has acquired or disposed of any securities, whether directly or through a nominee, trustee or agent, and whether as beneficial owner, nominee, trustee, agent or otherwise; or

- (d) a regulated person through which the Commission has reasonable cause to believe any securities have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded, to furnish the Commission the information specified in subsection (2) within the time and in the form specified.

- (2) The information for the purposes of subsection (1) is

- (a) particulars that are reasonably capable of establishing the identity of the person on whose behalf, or by, from, to or through whom the securities in question are held, or have been acquired, disposed of, dealt with or traded, as the case may be;
- (b) the instructions given to or by the person referred to in paragraph (a) or any officer, employee or agent of such person, in relation to the holding, acquisition, disposal, dealing, or trading of or in respect of the securities;
- (c) the particulars of the securities and the consideration given or received; and
- (d) any other information in the possession of the person as the Commission specifies.

Inspection reports and costs.

117. (1) After the conclusion of an inspection of a regulated person or a market participant, the Commission may require that a report be prepared setting out the findings of that inspection.

(2) The Commission shall consider and make recommendations on any information or report prepared under this Part.

(3) The Commission may charge a prescribed fee for an inspection conducted under this Part.

(4) On application, the Commission may exempt a regulated person from the payment of costs where the Commission considers it appropriate.

Participation of other regulatory authorities in inspections under this division.

118. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may, on the request of a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority, permit the regulatory authority to take part in a compliance inspection undertaken by the Commission under this Part.

(2) The Commission shall not permit a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority to take part in a compliance inspection under subsection (1), unless it is of the opinion that the participation of the regulatory authority is reasonably required —

(a) for the effective supervision of a regulated person; or

(b) for the purposes of the regulatory functions of the regulatory authority.

(3) In deciding whether to permit a domestic regulatory authority or foreign regulatory authority to take part in a compliance inspection under subsection (1), the Commission may take into account, whether the regulatory authority —

- (a) is subject to adequate legal restrictions on further disclosure;
- (b) is legally empowered to take part in a compliance inspection of that regard; and
- (c) is likely, without the written permission of the Commission—
 - (i) to disclose information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance inspection to any person other than an officer or employee of the authority engaged in supervision, or
 - (ii) to take any action on information obtained or documents examined or obtained during the compliance inspection.

119. (1) A person shall not, without reasonable excuse, alter, suppress, conceal, destroy or refuse to produce a document which is required to be produced in accordance with securities law or Regulations.

Restriction on withholding or concealing.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years.

120. (1) A person shall not be required to disclose information or to produce a document which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.

Protection of persons providing information.

(2) For the purpose of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser

(a) by a person, or representative of a person who is a client of the legal adviser;

(b) by a person or a representative of a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or

(c) by any person in contemplation of or in connection with legal proceedings and for the purpose of these proceedings.

(3) For the purposes of this section, information or other matter must not be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances, if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

Division 2

Assistance to domestic regulatory authorities

Assistance to domestic regulatory authorities.

121. (1) At the request of a domestic regulatory authority, the Commission may, where it considers it appropriate, exercise its powers under securities law for the purpose of assisting the domestic regulatory authority with the performance of its regulatory functions.

(2) Notwithstanding Article 24 of the Agreement, the Commission may provide information that it has acquired in the course of its duties or in the exercise of its functions under securities law to another domestic regulatory authority where the Commission considers the information may be relevant to the functions of that domestic regulatory authority or as a necessary part of a framework for consolidated supervision, oversight or Regulations of the financial services sector.

Division 3
Assistance to foreign regulatory authorities

122. (1) In determining whether to grant assistance referred to under section 123, the Commission may consider the following factors —

Conditions for provision assistance.

- (a) whether the assistance is intended to enable the foreign regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out the supervision, investigation or enforcement for which the request relates;
- (b) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given a written undertaking that any document or information obtained pursuant to its request shall not be used for any other purpose not approved by the Commission;
- (c) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given a written undertaking not to disclose to a third party any document or information received pursuant to the request without the approval of the Commission and in accordance with any conditions imposed by the Commission; and
- (d) whether the rendering of assistance would not be contrary to the public interest of the Currency Union, the interest of the investing public, or the interest of the general public.

(2) In deciding whether to grant a request for assistance referred to under section 123 from a foreign regulatory authority, the Commission may also have regard to the following —

- (a) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to comply with a future request by the Commission to the foreign regulatory authority for similar assistance; and
- (b) whether the foreign regulatory authority has given or is willing to give an undertaking to the Commission to contribute towards the costs of providing the assistance that the foreign regulatory authority has requested.

(3) Where a regulatory authority fails to comply with a requirement of the Commission in subsection (1) or (2), the Commission may refuse to provide the assistance sought.

Assistance that may be provided.

123. (1) Notwithstanding Article 24 of the Agreement, the provisions of any law, the Commission may, in relation to a request for assistance by a foreign regulatory authority —

- (a) transmit to the foreign regulatory authority any document in the possession of the Commission that is requested by the authority;
- (b) order any person to furnish to the Commission any document that is requested by the foreign regulatory authority, that the Commission may then transmit to that authority;
- (c) order any person to give the Commission assistance in connection with a request made by a foreign regulatory authority; or
- (d) order any person to make an oral statement to the Commission on any information requested by the foreign regulatory authority, record such statement, and transmit the recorded statement to the authority.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the material the Commission may order be furnished under subsection (1) includes —

- (a) auditing information including, but not limited to, audit working papers, communications, and other information relating to the audit or review of financial statements;
- (b) subscriber records held or maintained by telephone service providers located in the Currency Union that include the name and address of subscribers, payment details and incoming and outgoing communications with date, time, duration and identification of phone numbers from which communications are made or received and other prescribed details; and
- (c) subscribers records held or maintained by internet service providers or other electronic communication providers located in the Currency Union that includes the identity of subscribers.

(3) A person shall not be required to disclose information or to produce a document which the person would be entitled to refuse to disclose or to produce on the grounds of legal professional privilege in court proceedings.

(4) For the purpose of this section, any information or other matter comes to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the legal adviser —

- (a) by a person, or representative of a person who is a client of the legal adviser;
- (b) by a person or by a representative of a person seeking legal advice from the adviser; or

(c) by any person in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings and for the purpose of these proceedings.

(5) For the purposes of this section, information or other matter shall be treated as coming to a professional legal adviser in privileged circumstances, if it is communicated or given with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

(6) Where the person in possession of any document required to be produced under this Part, claims a lien on the document —

(a) the requirements to produce the document shall not be affected by the lien;

(b) no fees shall be payable for or in respect of the production;
and

(c) the production shall be without prejudice to the lien.

Authority to enter into Memorandum of Understanding.

124. (1) The Commission may, in exercise of its co-operative functions, enter into memoranda of understanding with foreign regulatory authorities for —

(a) the purposes of assisting a foreign regulatory authority, or any designated third party, to carry out its supervision, investigation or enforcement functions;

(b) the purposes of assisting in consolidated supervision with such foreign regulatory authority or any designated third party; or

(c) such other purposes as the Commission may considered fit.

(2) The Commission shall notify the Minister of Finance of each memorandum of understanding and promptly publish the memorandum of understanding in the Gazette.

125. (1) A person shall not —

(11) The powers referred to in subsection (10) include the power to terminate the business of the regulated person if it is judged to be insolvent.

(12) A person appointed in respect of a regulated person under subsection (1)(l) or (m) shall —

- (a) supply the Commission with such information in respect of the regulated person, when requested to do so by the Commission;
- (b) within three months of the person's appointment, or within such other period as the Commission may specify, prepare and supply to the Commission a report on the affairs of the regulated person and where appropriate make recommendations in respect of the regulated person; and
- (c) if the person's appointment is not terminated after supplying the report referred to in paragraph (b), subsequently supply to the Commission such other information, reports and recommendations as the Commission requires.

(13) If a person appointed under subsection (1) (l) or (m)

(a) fails to comply with an obligation under subsection (12); or

(b) in the Commission's opinion, is not carrying out the person's obligations in respect of the relevant regulated person satisfactorily, the Commission, may revoke the appointment and appoint some other person in the person's place, and may assess the charges payable to such appointed person up to the date of the revocation of the appointment, and any expenses reasonably incurred by the Commission by virtue of the revocation and reappointment is an amount due to the Commission payable by the appointed person.

(14) On receipt of any information or report under subsection (12) in respect of a regulated person, the Commission may—

(a) require the regulated person to reorganize its affairs in a manner specified by the Commission;

(b) apply to the Court for an order to wind up, dissolve, liquidate or otherwise terminate, as appropriate, the regulated person on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit; or

(c) take such action in respect of the appointment or continued appointment of the person appointed under subsection (1) (l) or (m) as the Commission considers appropriate.

(15) Where the Commission takes action under subsection (14) it may —

- (a) apply to the court for an order to take such other action as it considers necessary to protect the interest of clients or creditors of, or investors in, the regulated person; or
- (b) take any other action provided for in subsection (1) or (2).

Application to the court.

128. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Act, if the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, at any time and without a hearing, apply to the court for an order —

- (a) to enforce a directive or order made by the Commission under securities law;
- (b) for a market participant to be wound up, dissolved, liquidated, or otherwise terminated, as appropriate; or
- (c) to take any other action as the Commission considers necessary.

Civil penalty.

129. (1) If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, on a settlement under section 130 or after a hearing under section 139, order a person that has breached a provision of securities law to pay the Commission a civil penalty of fifty thousand dollars for each contravention.

(2) Any person in breach of any provision of securities law solely by reason of failing to file with or deliver to the Commission a document within the required time period shall be subject to an automatic penalty of one thousand dollars, for each day from the day the document was required to be filed or delivered to the day the document was filed or delivered.

(3) A person who files a document or instrument with the Commission after the expiration of the period set out in this Act, may in writing, request an opportunity to make representations to the Commission.

130. (1) In addition to the powers set out under section 129, the Commission may issue to any person who, there is reasonable cause to believe, has committed an offence referred to in Schedule 1, a notice in the form set out in Schedule 2 offering the person the opportunity to discharge any liability to conviction in respect of that offence by payment of a civil penalty in accordance with the Schedule for that offence.

Civil penalty may be imposed for certain offences.

Schedule 1.
Schedule 2.

(2) Where a person is given a notice under subsection (1), criminal proceedings shall not be taken against him or her for the offence specified in the notice until the expiration of twenty-one business days commencing from the day after which the notice was received.

(3) Where a person fails to pay the civil penalty referred to in subsection (1), or where he continues to commit the offence, after the expiration of twenty-one business days following the date of receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (1) that person is liable on conviction for the original offence committed.

(4) A notice under subsection (1) shall —

- (a) specify the offence alleged;
- (b) give such particulars of the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the allegation; and
- (c) state —
 - (i) that criminal proceedings shall not be laid until the expiration of twenty-one business days from the date of receipt of the notice where a payment of the civil penalty is made and the commission of the offence is discontinued, and
 - (ii) the amount of the civil penalty and that it is to be paid into the Reserve Fund established under Article 26 of the ECSRC Agreement by the method prescribed.

(5) In any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies, no reference shall be made to the giving of any notice or to the payment or non-payment of any civil penalty under this section, nor shall these be referred to in any document which is before the Court in connection with the proceedings, unless reference has been made by, or on behalf of the accused to the giving of such a notice, or, as the case may be, to such payment.

Payment of benefits received.

131. If the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, after a hearing, order a person to pay to the Commission any amount obtained, or payment or loss avoided, as a result of a contravention of securities law, plus a penalty of twice the amount obtained or payment or loss avoided.

Payment received under sections 129 and 130.

132. Each civil penalty imposed by the Commission in the exercise of its powers under this Act shall be payable into the Reserve Fund established under Article 26 of the Agreement.

Payment of costs.

133. (1) The Commission shall order a person subject to a hearing to pay the costs of the Commission's investigation, the hearing and related costs.

(2) The Commission may grant an exemption regarding the payment of costs where the Commission considers it appropriate.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the costs that the Commission may order the person to pay include—

(a) costs incurred in respect of services provided by persons appointed or engaged under section 111(2) or Article 23 (5) and (6) of the Agreement;

(b) costs of matters preliminary to the hearing;

- (c) costs for time spent by the Commission or the staff of the Commission;
- (d) any fee paid to and costs of a witness; and
- (e) costs of legal services provided to the Commission.

134. (1) Where the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may, for the administration of securities law, or to assist in the administration of the securities law of another jurisdiction, by order, for a period not exceeding thirty business days, directing a person —

Order to detain property.

- (a) having, on deposit, under control or for safekeeping, any funds, securities or other property of the person named in the Order, to hold the deposit, funds, securities or property for safekeeping;
- (b) not to withdraw any funds, securities or other property from any person having them on deposit, under control or for safekeeping; or
- (c) to hold all funds, securities or other property belonging to a client of that person, or of others, in the person's possession or control in trust for a receiver, receiver-manager, trustee or liquidator appointed under an enactment of member territory.

(2) An aggrieved person may apply to a judge in chambers to discharge an order made under subsection (1) and shall serve notice on the Commission to join in the proceedings, but the Commission's order shall remain in effect until the judge determines otherwise.

(3) Unless expressly stated, an order made under subsection (1) does not apply to funds, securities or other property at a clearing facility, or to securities in the process of transfer by a transfer agent.

Liability of senior officers.

135. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of securities law, where a company has been convicted of an offence, under securities law, a senior officer who knowingly or recklessly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the offence also commits the offence and is liable to the penalty specified for it.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of securities law, where a person has been convicted of an offence under securities law, a supervisor of that person who knowingly or recklessly authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the offence also commits the offence and is liable to the penalty specified for it.

(3) Reasonable reliance, including reliance on the advice of an attorney-at-law, in good faith on a statement of the law contained in —

(a) the securities law;

(b) a judgment or declaration by a Court; or

(c) an order or publication of the Commission, is a defence in a proceeding under this section.

General Order.

136. A person who contravenes a provision under the securities law, other than one to which a specific offence applies, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years.

Limited period.

137. No proceedings against any person for a breach of any of the provisions of securities law, or for a failure to comply with any of the provisions, may be commenced after the expiration of six years from the day on which the breach or non-compliance was or ought to have been discovered.

138. Nothing in the securities law shall prevent the Commission from referring a matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for prosecution.

Referral of matters to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

139. The Commission may, where it appears that a person has breached a provision of securities law or failed to comply with a requirement, directive or order given by the Commission, appoint an independent Disciplinary Committee to —

Disciplinary and enforcement authority of the Commission.

- (a) conduct regulatory hearings; and
- (b) impose one or more of the sanctions remedies, or other relief as may be prescribed in securities law.

140. (1) At a hearing, the Disciplinary Committee shall provide each person, including an interested market participant directly affected by the breach of the Act a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

Conduct of hearings.

(2) For the purpose of a hearing under subsection (1), the Disciplinary Committee shall provide each person, including an interested market participant, a notice of the proceedings which must state —

- (a) the name, address and designation of the person;
- (b) a statement of the time, place and purpose of the hearing;
- (c) a reference to the authority under which the hearing is to be held;
- (d) a concise statement of the allegations of fact and law; and
- (e) a statement that if the person fails to attend at the hearing, the Commission may proceed with the hearing without giving him or her further notice.

(3) The Disciplinary Committee may —

(a) issue a subpoena or other request or summons requiring a person to attend at a hearing to —

(i) testify to all matters relating to the subject of the hearing, and

(ii) produce all records relating to the subject of the hearing that are in his or her possession or under his or her control, whether they are located in the Currency Union or elsewhere; and

(b) require a person to give evidence orally or in writing on oath or affirmation as it thinks necessary.

(4) A person summoned to give evidence before the Disciplinary Committee under subsection (3), shall not be compelled to incriminate himself or herself.

(5) A person under subsection (4) is, in respect of any evidence given by him or her before the Disciplinary Committee, entitled to all privileges to which a witness giving evidence before the High Court.

(6) On an application by the Disciplinary Committee to the court, a person summoned under subsection (3) is liable to be committed for contempt, as if in breach of an order or judgment of the court, if the person neglects or refuses to —

(a) attend;

(b) give evidence; or

(c) produce a document in the custody, possession or control of the person.

(7) A hearing under subsection (1) shall be open to the public unless the Commission directs otherwise.

(8) A person who is entitled to notice of a hearing under subsection (2) may be represented by an attorney-at-law and, subject to any rules made under securities law, may present evidence and cross-examine witnesses at the hearing.

(9) A witness summoned under subsection (3) may be advised by an attorney-at-law.

(10) The Disciplinary Committee may admit as evidence at a hearing under subsection (1) any testimony or exhibit that it considers relevant to the subject-matter of the proceedings and may take notice of any fact that may be judicially noticed and of any generally recognized scientific or technical fact, information or opinion within its area of expertise.

(11) The Disciplinary Committee shall make provision for all oral evidence presented at a hearing under subsection (1) to be transcribed.

(12) The Disciplinary Committee —

- (a) shall make a final decision in writing and state the findings of fact on which it is based and the reasons for it;
- (b) shall send a copy of the final decision and reasons to each person entitled to notice under subsection (1) who appeared at the hearing; and
- (c) may publish a summary of a final decision and reasons in accordance with subsection (15).

(13) Subsection (1) does not apply to —

- (a) an order that is essentially procedural;

(b) an order that does not adversely affect the rights or interests of any person;

(c) an interim order or other order that the Commission may make under securities law without holding a hearing; or

(d) an appointment that is made under section 111(2).

(14) Notwithstanding subsection 12 (c), where an order is made under section 127(1), the Commission shall publish a summary of the order and reasons for the order.

(15) The Commission may satisfy the publication requirement under subsection (12)(c) by —

(a) publishing in the Gazette, in a newspaper of general circulation in each country in the Currency Union and on the Commission's website; or

(b) issuing a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in each country in the Currency Union informing the public of a publication.

Conditions on discision.

141. The Disciplinary Committee may impose terms and conditions in any decision it makes, as the Committee considers fit.

Discretion to revoke or vary decision.

142. The Disciplinary Committee may, at any time by notice in writing vary or revoke any term or condition imposed in a decision by the Commission as it considers fit.

Appeals.

143. (1) The Commission may —

(a) on its own motion; or

(b) on an application from an aggrieved person review any decision made under the authority delegated in Article 21(1) of the Agreement or under Part I, II or IV of the Act and shall provide a reasonable opportunity to make representations and give reasonable notice to each person directly affected by the decision.

(2) The Commission shall, within thirty business days of a request for review under this section notify the parties of the date, time and venue of the hearing to review the decision.

(3) The Commission may set aside, vary or confirm the decision under review or make such decisions as it considers appropriate.

(4) A decision that is subject to review under this section takes effect immediately unless the Commission grants a stay pending the completion of a review under this section.

144. (1) A person directly affected by an adverse decision, finding or order of the Commission may appeal to the High Court within fifteen business days of the person's receipt of the notification of the adverse decision, finding or order.

Appeals to the High Court.

(2) No appeal of a decision of a licensee under Part I may be made under this section unless the person affected has taken all reasonable steps available to appeal or obtain a review of the decision under section 143.

(3) An order that is subject to appeal under this section takes effect immediately, but the High Court may grant a stay pending the hearing of the appeal.

(4) The Commission is entitled to appear and be heard on the merits of an appeal under this section or on any other application to the High Court relating to the exercise by the Commission of its powers.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the procedure for determining appeals shall be in accordance with the Civil Procedure

Rules 2000 of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court.

(6) On appeal under this section, the High Court may make, or may direct the Commission to make, any order that the Commission is authorized to make and which the High Court considers just and proper, or it may remand the case to the Commission for further proceedings subject to any conditions which, in the opinion of the High Court, are just.

PART XIII

CIVIL LIABILITY FOR MISREPRESENTATION

Liability for misrepresentation in prospectus, damages.

145. (1) Subject to this section, a purchaser of a security distributed under a prospectus during its distribution period has the right of action for damages for any loss or damage sustained by reason of a misrepresentation in the prospectus against the following persons—

- (a) the issuer or the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made;
- (b) a person who is a director of the issuer at the date of filing of the prospectus;
- (c) a person who authorized or caused himself to be named and is named, in the prospectus as a director or as having agreed to become a director, either immediately preceding the date of filing of the prospectus or after an interval of time thereafter;
- (d) where the issuer is not a reporting issuer prior to the distribution, any person who was a promoter of the issuer within the twenty-four-month period immediately preceding the date of filing of the prospectus;

- (e) a person whose consent has been filed as required by section 62(2) but only with respect to a misrepresentation in a prospectus derived from, or based on, reports, opinions, valuations, or statements that have been made by such person; and
- (f) any other person who signed a certificate in the prospectus other than a person referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e).

(2) A person, other than the reporting issuer or the selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made, is not liable under subsection (1) if —

- (a) having consented to become a director of the issuer, he or she withdrew his or her consent before the filing of the prospectus and the prospectus was filed without his or her authority or consent;
- (b) the prospectus was filed without his knowledge or consent, he gave reasonable public notice of that fact forthwith after becoming aware of it; or
- (c) after the filing of the prospectus and before the sale of securities under it, he became aware of a misrepresentation, withdrew his consent, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal of the consent and the reason for it.

(3) A person is not liable under subsection (1) —

- (a) where, as regards a misrepresentation in a prospectus made by an expert or based on a report, opinion, valuation, or statement made or prepared by an expert —
 - (i) the misrepresentation fairly represented and was a correct and fair copy of, or extract from, the report, opinion, valuation, or statement of the expert, and

- (ii) that a person had reasonable grounds to believe and did believe, up to the time of the filing of the prospectus, that the expert making the statement or preparing the report, opinion, or valuation was competent to make it, had given his consent as required under section 62 and had not withdrawn that consent before delivery of a copy of the prospectus for filing, nor had the expert, to the knowledge of the person, withdrawn that consent before the sale of any securities under the prospectus;
- (b) if the purchaser, bringing the action, knew of the misrepresentation at the time of the purchase; or
- (c) if, as regards a misrepresentation purporting to be a statement made by a public official or contained in what purports to be a copy of, or extract from a public official document, the misrepresentation was a correct and fair representation of the statement or a copy of, or extract from, the document.

(4) The liability of all persons referred to in subsection (1) is joint and several as between themselves with respect to the same cause of action.

(5) A person who is found liable to pay a sum in damages may recover a contribution, in whole or in part, from a person who is jointly and severally liable under this section to make the same payment in the same cause of action unless the court is satisfied that it would not be just and equitable to do so.

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (5), no underwriter is liable for more than the portion of the total public offering price represented by the distribution of securities underwritten by that underwriter at the time of making the purchase.

(7) In an action brought under this section, a purchaser need not prove that he or she was in fact influenced by the misrepresentation or that he or she relied on the misrepresentation in purchasing the security.

146. (1) A purchaser who, during the distribution period, purchases a security distributed under a prospectus that contains a misrepresentation has a right of action against the issuer or the underwriter that sold securities to the purchaser under the prospectus for the rescission of the sale and the repayment to the purchaser of the price that was paid in respect of the security.

Action by a purchaser for rescission.

(2) A purchaser who elects to exercise a right of action for rescission against the issuer or underwriter under subsection (1) shall have no right of action for damages against such issuer or underwriter under section 145.

(3) In an action brought under this section, the purchaser need not prove that he was in fact influenced by the misrepresentation or that he relied on the misrepresentation in purchasing the security.

(4) The right of rescission under this section also applies to securities sold under a prospectus that offers them for subscription in consideration of the transfer or surrender of other securities, whether with or without the payment of cash by, or to the issuer, as though the issue price of the securities offered for subscription were the fair value, as ascertained by the Court, of the securities to be transferred or surrendered, plus the amount of cash, if any, to be paid by the issuer.

Due diligence defence.

147. It is a defence to a charge under sections 145 and 146, if the person charged proves that all inquiries that were reasonable in the circumstances were made and after doing so, had reasonable cause to believe that the statement was not a misrepresentation.

Liability for misrepresentation in other offering document.

148. (1) Subject to this section, where an offering document, other than a prospectus, contains a misrepresentation, a purchaser who purchased a security offered by the offering document has a right of action for damages against an issuer and a selling security holder on whose behalf the distribution is made.

(2) In this section, a purchaser who receives an offering document whether prior to or following the purchase of a security shall be deemed to have relied on the offering document in making his or her investment decision.

Civil Liability for trading contrary to market misconduct.

149. (1) Subject to this section, a purchaser of a security has —

(a) a right of action for damages against the seller and such seller shall be liable for any loss or damages sustained; or

(b) a right of action for rescission against the seller for rescission of the transaction, where the seller has made the sale to the purchaser contrary to market misconduct under Part X.

(2) Subject to this section, a seller of security has —

(a) a right of action for damages against the purchaser and such purchaser shall be liable for any loss or damages sustained; or

(b) a right of action for rescission against the purchaser for rescission of the transaction, where the purchaser has made the purchase from the seller contrary to market misconduct under Part X.

(3) A person may bring an action under subsection (1) or (2) in respect of a contravention referred to in subsection (1) or (2) even though the person against whom the action is brought has not been charged with or convicted of an offence by reason of the contravention.

(4) A person who is a senior officer or an employee of a reporting issuer that trades contrary to section 102 is accountable to the reporting issuer for any benefit or advantage received or receivable by the person or company as a result of the contravention of section 102, unless the person proves that he reasonably believed that the inside information had been published.

(5) It is a defence to a person charged under this section if a person bringing the action that contravenes section 102 in respect of the trade that is the subject of the action.

150. (1) Subject to this section —

Liability for damages.

(a) a person who contravenes section 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99 or 100, whether or not he or she incurs other liability, shall be liable to pay compensation by way of damages to any other person as a result of the contravention, whether or not the loss arises from the other person having entered into a transaction or trading at a price affected by the contravention; and

(b) a person who sustained a loss as a result of a person acting in contravention of section 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, or 100 whether or not the loss arises from the other person having entered into a transaction, has a right of action under paragraph (a) against the contravening person.

(2) A person may bring an action under subsection (1) even though the person against whom the action is brought has not been charged with or convicted of an offence by reason of the contravention.

Leave to appear and intervene in an action.

151. (1) The Commission may apply to a judge of the High Court for leave to bring an action under this Part in the name and on behalf of an issuer or security holder and the judge may grant leave on any terms that he considers proper if the judge is satisfied that —

- (a) the Commission has reasonable grounds for believing that a cause of action exists under this Part;
- (b) the issuer or security holder has failed or is unable to commence an action; and
- (c) the Commission has given sixty business days written notice to the issuer or security holder who has refused or failed to commence an action.

(2) The Commission may apply to a judge of the High Court for leave to appear or intervene in an action under this Part and the judge may grant leave on such terms as he or she considers appropriate.

(3) The Commission may publish a summary of the terms of any settlement of an action commenced or intervened in by publishing in the Gazette and

- (a) publishing in a newspaper of general circulation in each member territory of the Currency Union; or
- (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of such posting.

152. The right of action for damages conferred by this Part shall not affect any other right a person may have.

Non-derogation of rights.

PART XIV MISCELLANEOUS

153. (1) The Commission may issue guidelines on any matter it considers necessary to —

Guidelines.

- (a) give effect to securities law;
- (b) enable the Commission to perform its functions;
- (c) aid compliance with any other written law which may be administered or supervised by the Commission which may be in force from time to time; or
- (d) regulate the market conduct of market participants.

(2) A guideline issued under this section shall not be regarded as a statutory instrument.

(3) Contravention of a guideline in subsection (1) does not constitute an offence, but this shall not prevent the Commission from taking action under Part XII.

154. (1) Before making or amending guidelines referred to under section 153, the Commission shall publish draft guidelines or draft amendments and shall consult with relevant stakeholders.

Consultation on proposed Guidelines.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Commission, any matter proposed to be dealt with in guidelines or by an amendment has become urgent, the Commission shall proceed to issue the guidelines or amendments, without following the process referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The guidelines issued under subsection (1) shall be effective for ninety business days, unless repealed and replaced.

Regulations.

155. (1) In addition to any specific provisions elsewhere in securities law the Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission, make Regulations necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of securities law and giving effect to the functions and responsibilities of the Commission.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may make Regulations—

- (a) regarding any matter in relation to which the Commission may make a rule;
- (b) specifying a provision of the Regulations the contravention of which constitutes an offence;
- (c) governing the procedures that are to be followed by the Commission in making and repealing rules made by the Commission; and
- (d) repealing or amending a rule made by the Commission.

Publication of proposed Regulations.

156. (1) The Commission shall publish in accordance with subsection (2), at least thirty business days before the proposed effective date thereof—

- (a) a copy of any Regulations that it proposes to recommend to the Minister;
- (b) a concise statement of the substance and purpose of the proposed Regulations; and
- (c) a reference to the authority under which the Regulations are proposed.

(2) The Commission shall satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) by publishing in the Gazette and —

- (a) publishing in a newspaper of general circulation in each territory;
- (b) posting on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public of the publication.

(3) After a proposed Regulation is published in accordance with subsection (2), the Commission shall afford a reasonable opportunity to interested persons to make representations with respect to the proposed Regulation.

(4) The Commission is not required to comply with subsections (1), (2) and (3) if —

- (a) a person who will be subject to the Regulations is named and the documents required by subsection (1)(a) to (c) are sent to each of them;
- (b) the Regulations only grant an exemption or relieve a restriction and are not likely to have a substantial impact on the interests of persons other than those who benefit under it;
- (c) the Regulations make no material substantive change in existing Regulations;
- (d) the Commission for good cause finds that compliance with subsections (1), (2) and (3) is impracticable or unnecessary and publishes the finding and a concise statement of the reasons for it; or
- (e) the Commission, make Regulations where the Commission believes that there is an urgent need for the proposed rule and that the delay involved in complying with subsections (1), (2) and (3) would be prejudicial to the public interest;

(5) A person may petition the Commission to recommend the making, amendment or revocation of Regulations.

Rules.

157. (1) In carrying out the purpose of securities law and its functions and responsibilities under securities law, the Commission may make rules providing for such matters as may be necessary or expedient for giving effect to such purposes, functions and responsibilities.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), rules may vary the application of securities law generally or with respect to their application to —

(a) a person or class of persons;

(b) a security or class of securities; or

(c) a trade or class of trades.

Rule-making process.

158. (1) The Commission shall publish, in accordance with subsection (2), at least thirty business days before the proposed effective date —

(a) a copy of any rule that it proposes to make;

(b) a concise statement of the substance and purpose of the proposed rule; and

(c) a reference to the authority under which the rule is made.

(2) The Commission shall satisfy the requirement of subsection (1) by publishing in the Gazette and —

(a) publishing in a newspaper of general circulation in each member territory;

- (b) post on the website of the Commission and issuing a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in each member territory notifying the public or such posting.

(3) After a proposed rule is published in accordance with subsection (2), the Commission shall afford a reasonable opportunity to make written representations with respect to the proposed rule.

(4) The Commission shall publish each final rule, with any amendments that the Commission considers appropriate to make as a result of the public comment process under this section, as prescribed on or before its effective date.

(5) The Commission is not required to comply with subsections (1), (2) and (3) if —

- (a) a person who will be subject to the rule is named and the documents required by subsections (1) (a) to (c) are sent to that person;
- (b) the rule only grants an exemption or relieves a restriction and is not likely to have substantial impact on the interests of persons other than those who benefit under it;
- (c) the rule makes no material substantive change in an existing rule;
- (d) the Commission for good cause finds that compliance with subsections (1), (2) and (3) is impracticable or unnecessary and publishes the finding and a concise statement of the reasons for it; or

(e) the Commission believes that there is an urgent need for the proposed rule and that the delay involved in complying with subsections (1) and (2) would be prejudicial to the public interest.

(6) Where the Commission amends or revokes a rule, it shall—

(a) publish notice of the amendment or revocation; and

(b) include in such a notice details of the amendment or revocation.

Regulations prevail over rules.

159. Where Rules are made by the Commission conflicts with Regulations made by the Minister, the Regulations prevail.

Power to vary Commission rules.

160. Where the Commission considers it not prejudicial to the public interest to do so, the Commission may vary a rule made under section 157 as it applies to a person, trade, or security, or a class of persons, trades or securities.

Power to remove exemption contained in Commission rule.

161. Where the Commission considers it in the public interest to do so, the Commission may order that an exemption in a rule made under section 157 does not apply to a person, trade or security, or a class of persons, trade or securities.

Forms.

162. The Commission may specify the prescribed forms that may be used under this Act and shall publish these forms on its website.

Appointment of receiver or receiver-manager.

163. (1) Where the Commission considers that it is in the public interest or necessary for the protection of investors to prevent—

(a) a person who has contravened securities law; or

(b) a licensee whose licence under securities law has been suspended or revoked

from dealing with property under his or its control or direction, the Commission may apply to the High Court for an order under subsection (2).

(2) The High Court may appoint a receiver or receiver-manager for a person or regulated person referred to under subsection (1) if it is satisfied that such order is in the interests of the customers, creditors, investors or other affected parties.

(3) Where the Commission intends to apply to the High Court to appoint a receiver or receiver-manager in respect of the property of a licensee that is a financial institution regulated by the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank, the Commission shall, before making the application, consult with the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank with regard to the proposed application.

(4) The High Court may make an order under subsection (1) on an ex parte application by the Commission for a period not exceeding fifteen business days.

(5) The High Court may order a receiver or receiver-manager appointed under this subsection (2) to receive such remuneration to cover its charges and expenses from the person, or regulated person referred to in subsection (1), and such remuneration shall be in such order of priority, in relation to existing charges, as the High Court sees fit.

(6) The receiver or receiver-manager shall —

(a) conduct its duties with the greatest economy, compatible with efficiency and as soon as possible after its appointment; and

(b) file with the High Court, and with a copy to the Commission, a report stating its recommended course of action in the circumstances.

(7) The receiver or receiver-manager, the Commission or any interested person may at any time apply to the High Court for the cancellation of an order made under subsection (1) or (4).

Chap. 78:04.

(8) The provisions of the Companies Act, relating to a receiver or receiver-manager shall apply to a receiver or receiver-manager appointed under this section.

Appointment of liquidator.

Chap. 78:04.

164. (1) The High Court may order the winding up of a licensee or self-regulatory organization, and appoint a liquidator in accordance with the Companies Act, subject to the modification that the licensee or self-regulatory organization may also be ordered to be wound up on the petition of the Commission.

(2) A petition made by the Commission under subsection (1) shall not be presented except with leave of the High Court.

(3) In any case where a petition is made by the Commission to the High Court for the winding up of a licensee or self-regulatory organization —

(a) the licensee or self-regulatory organization shall not carry on business during the pendency of the petition unless it is authorized to do so by the High Court and except in accordance with conditions, if any, as may be specified by the High Court;

(b) the High Court, may permit the licensee or the self-regulatory organization to resume business either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the High Court may consider necessary in the public interest of the clients, investors and other creditors of the licensee or self-regulatory organization if after such inquiry as it may consider necessary, it is of the opinion, that the licensee or self-regulatory organization —

- (i) is not insolvent,
 - (ii) is able to meet the requirements for licensing under this Act, and
 - (iii) its continuation in business is not likely to involve a loss to its clients, investors or members; and
- (c) if the conditions of paragraph (b) are not fulfilled, the High Court may order that the registrant or self-regulatory organization be wound up.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, where an order of the High Court is made, for the winding up of any licensee or self-regulatory organization or for the appointment of a receiver or receiver-manager, whether in pursuance of any petition made under this section or otherwise, such person as may be nominated by the Commission may be appointed as liquidator, receiver or receiver- manager, as the case may be.

(5) A licensee or self-regulatory organization shall not pass a resolution for a voluntary winding up or commence a voluntary winding up without first obtaining written approval of the Commission, on an application in writing accompanied by such documents and information as may be required by the Commission.

(6) The Commission shall not grant the approval referred to in subsection (5), unless it is satisfied that —

- (a) the voluntary winding up will be affected in a manner that would not pose undue risks to customers, investors or members of the licensee or self-regulatory organization; or
- (b) adversely affect public confidence in the securities industry in the Currency Union, and such approval may be subject to such terms and conditions as the Commission determines.

(7) Where the Commission intends to apply to the High Court to appoint a liquidator in respect of the property of a financial institution that is licenced by the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank, the Commission shall, before making the application, consult with the Eastern Caribbean Central Bank with regard to the proposed application.

(8) The provisions of the Companies Act, relating to a liquidator shall apply to a liquidator appointed under this section.
